ORDER SETTING SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

On September 21, 2015, the court conducted a status conference with counsel and Mediator Earle I. Erman in the above-captioned cases. The Mediator updated the court, in general terms, as to the status of settlement efforts. After hearing from the Mediator and counsel for both Chrysler and Callidus, the court is under the firm impression that, if entered into in good faith, one final mediation session may result in a mutually agreeable settlement. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that counsel and one, or possibly two, decision-making representatives from Chrysler and Callidus are DIRECTED to appear at the Federal Courthouse in Detroit, Michigan, within the next 28 days, with an exact time to be selected through coordination with the Mediator. Counsel from Harvey need not appear. The appropriate client representative(s) in attendance must have authority to negotiate a binding settlement.
